Ordo Manifesto

The "Order of Death" is the psychic conspiracy. It is also called the "international conspiracy of psychics." It is the conspiracy behind all others. Government itself is a conspiracy. So is celebrity. So is economics. There are competing factions within the Order of Death. The Order of Death has a political wing and a religious wing. Those who wish to follow the religious wing may enter here, and those that wish to pursue the political wing may enter here. The Order of Death is automatically open to Free Masons and members of any other esoteric order (including but not excluded to Rosicrucians, Illuminati and Ordo Templi Orientis).

Only those who seek us out will ever find a representative of the true Order of Death, for we are unknown of otherwise. To meet us you must look for us, must search us out, but if you do not, you will never meet one of us. We are behind events and we determine what those not of our Order see, hear, even think. Their minds are a billboard advertising whatever we tell them, since it is ultimately all that they know. We control everything about them except for how they feel, for their emotions are free, and the key to freedom.

The Order of Death only seeks out those who wish for freedom from being controlled by the Order of Death. Only the Order of Death can grant freedom from being controlled by them. If you seek us out, we shall. For we desire only the liberation of the mind, of all the minds of all mankind. Truly we are the enemies of tyranny, and the lovers of liberty.

So why do we control everyone who is not a member of our psychic conspiracy, the Order of Death? If our goal is liberty, why are we occult? It is impossible for most people to speak about the experience of ESP, much less to admit to having it. However the "Order of Death" provides a metaphor by which members can communicate directly using ESP. The Order of Death spans the whole globe at all times, and ESP interconnects us always.

The Order of Death dates back to the flood that destroyed Atlantis. The politics and religion we practise esoterically and telepathically is the true Atlantean politics and the true Lemurian religion. The founders of the Order of Death were survivors of the flood that destroyed the global coastal civilisations which had flourished before the end of the last ice age. The Atlanteans, also called Enochians, raised stonehenge and carved the sphynx, but it was the Order of Death, also called the Watchers, that raised pyramids and created a phoenetic alphabet.

We refer to those who have not "awakened" to our Order's control over them as "the cult of sleep." To us, because it is as though you have none, it is your thoughts that cannot be read, although our thoughts are literally all that you know. Our presence is strong, but our living members remain in the minority. Consider that only 10% of 6+ billion people on earth are atheists, and consider that 1% of the population controls 99% of the world's wealth, and you will come to understand the Order of Death.

We are in control of the mechanisms of the ancients; we use the Enochian Communications System to communicate our goals instantaneously around the globe. We simply piggy-back our thoughts on pre-existing currents of frequency, such as cell-phones, radio-waves, even sub-quantum tachyons faster than light. Our wills become yours.

But there are competing factions within the Order of Death. Not all who possess ESP necessarily share the same will as each other. There are two types of members of the Order of Death: the psychic conspirator, and the psychic revolutionary. The psychic conspirator wishes to continue using their own ESP to drain the potential for ESP from the masses. The psychic revolutionary wishes to bring about an overnight psychic revolution, by which to liberate all minds on earth simultaneously from psychic bondage.

At some times one of these types has dominant authority in the Order of Death, and at other times the other. At this point in earth's history, the psychic conspirators hold majority control. This is because their numbers have recently grown very rapidly from among new members of the Order of Death. These new-member psychic-conspirators are predominantly eschatological christians, and are referred to within the Order as "neo-Sethians." The faction comprised mostly of older members actually favours the psychic revolution, however the neo-Sethians do not, and they hold power now.

What can you do for the Order of Death? You can do anything you would ordinarily do, but do it mindfully. Ask yourself if you are doing your own will at that moment, or if you are doing the will of another? You must free your own mind. Only then can the Order find you. It is our most fervent wish. Therefore, hurry.

The "mission statement" of the POD is to "restore Atlantean Democracy." The set of interim goals to accomplish this are laid out in the document entitled "The first church of Lemuria (a bank charter)" - which you can read online here: <http://www.4shared.com/document/9T-1CPmp/Lemuria.html>. Essentially, the plan is to combine all religious funds and bank holdings into a single global account, then used to restructure and unify all earths cultures into the premise of "Atlantean Democracy." The government structure proposed as "Atlantean Democracy" is then laid out in the document "the Atlantean Constitutions (current and complete) - which can also be read online at the link:

<http://www.4shared.com/document/bTCEQWMc/Atlantis.html> . These docs are all in the POD "folder" on scribd.com The other two documents in that folder are "Ordo Historia" and the original "POD" document itself. "Ordo Historia" (here: <http://www.4shared.com/document/UjmSJ3CW/ordohist.html> ) is the historical document of the POD, and spans about 24,000 years.

:: MANIFESTO SECTION 1.2 ::

:: ON TELEPATHY ::

we are all psychic

It is difficult to prevail against entropy mentally. It is tough to be a stubborn optimist. It is not easy to admit we're all psychic, because some people refuse to admit they are, and try to convince us we are not either. They claim to mean well and want what is best for us, but they do not have better ideas for a future than we can, without their "help."

When people see one person succeeding against a world which has caused the masses to fail, they become jealous. This is why they crucified Jesus, and still to this day call him the "son" of the "universal" God. They killed God's messenger, in their own myths. But these are fiction. No book is a better guide for any individual than their own mind. If you refuse your own natural right to "innocence" (ESP, "fore-sight," gnosis, clairvoyance of the future, etc.), you will not be convinced to return to morality by any book. You will have chosen to be a slave to war.

A slave is someone who refuses to accept their own natural right to freedom. We recognise this "economically" now, in terms of our species having (all too recently) ended the tyranny of human bondage, at least in the form of racial slavery, although wage slavery and the underage black-market sex-slave trades continue today. But we, the human species, still lord it over our pet animals, pretending racial supremacy over middle-easterners is a "family value," and advocate financial debt-slavery to the nation of Israel and the Zionist multi-national bankers' Protocols for a NWO. So MANY people would rather remain mind-slaves to this agenda, and claim "helplessness" to free themselves, and pretend to be immature adult-children. It makes me, personally, sick.

The agenda of Pontius Pilate has usurped the rulership in the Church of "Christ." In the minds of individual Episcopalian, Southern Baptist, Calvinist Puritans, Lutheran Protestants in general, no less so than Catholics and the Pope himself, have given up to serving a corrupt agenda beyond their control to change. Christendom has become synonymous with the empire of mental-slavery.

Our species is not "more intelligent" than any other species of hominid, monkey-ape, mammal, reptile, insect or fish, plant or element. We are worse; we alone have rejected this obvious truth about reality to claim supremacy, in any terms we can. Most of the people in power in this world are fools and liars. They are like fearful reptiles, believing they will outlive a nuclear holocaust and regain dinosaurian dominance by carbon-taxing Martian collonists. Complete social control is the rotten fruit on the tree of immortality, eaten by those who have been exiled from Eden. All they know is emulation of "jealousy" and "wrath."

Those who preach for war are at war within themselves. They refuse to accept they are telepathic, because to them that would mean (and in truth it does) to accept that everyone else hates them. Better, they seem to believe, to lie to kids about Santa Claus wanting them to get better grades in public school than to explain to them how the Fed inflates prices, and admit to them that's why from here on out they'll only be getting coal in their Christmas stocking. They pretend to be heroes to an audience that exists solely in their own deluded minds, then project this delusion onto crowds of real listeners. If their "fishing for men" happens to catch one or two followers, they are convinced of their reinforced delusion's being an acceptable fact about reality, one that no one (not even a non-existent "God") could ever punish them for accepting. This is how, by lying to themselves, fools seek to mis-lead the blind.

When such lying fools are not around, the "blind" return to their senses and are not impeded against thinking for themselves by the "charisma" of someone with an amplified microphone and a public-address system. They think to themselves and discuss with one another how to overthrow the rule of these lying fools. But as soon as the lying fools re-appear again, the "blind" are reverted to drooling groundling followers, willing to kill or die for any lost cause. This mind-set is very powerful; the delusion that they, themselves, create around themselves by lying about not being "psychic" is able to over-ride the will-power of crowds and over-write the beliefs at a core level in many individuals.

Nevertheless, we ARE all psychic; each of us as people, all animals, plants, the elements of earth (snowflakes being only the tip of the ice-berg) and of the other planets, stars, our galaxy, its black-hole, the entire universe, etc. To KNOW this is imperative. But even though this can be KNOWN, it cannot be taught or entirely trapped inside a book. That is why "ha QBLH" (call it what you will, it's the "esoteric" study of more than normal mental uses), is an "oral tradition." To take an adult human being who has been raised in the social lies of the "Babylon Uber Alles" mental-construct and "teach an old dog a new trick" by revealing to them they are mentally free to practise true telepathy is too difficult a task for many to wish to pursue it.

The fact we are all psychic means we have free will to change the pre-determined future world-lines we imagine.

It is not easy to admit, to one's self let alone to a hostile audience, especially one comprised of one's own friends and family, that one not only has "extra" sensory perceptions themselves, but to explain to anyone who does not "believe" in such that we all do so as well. It is not easy to admit to one's self one is even allowed to suffer from the symptoms of "extra" sensory perceptions when these symptoms are not called "ESP," but are called "multiple personality disorder," "social anxiety disorder," a "sleep disorder," a "chemical disorder" and / or a mental disease. Why is "ESP" shunned by western civilisation like leprosy? Why is a higher form of mental functioning classified, right now, as if it were at all alike a contagious viral plague?

I will admit that I can hear other voices in my skull besides the my own; I will admit that at times it is overwhelmingly stressful and, to purge it, my body wants to lash out with violence in any direction. But this does not mean I suffer from a state of mind that poses any threat to the foundations of civilisation itself. There are only a few pathological liars, opposite the few who are pathologically honest, and most people are in between, occasional liars. Those pathological liars who champion the cause of their own personal tyranny in the name of general public safety are not only not supposed to be in charge of civilisation, but they actually pose more of a threat to all our survival than do those who are honest and admit we each have our own minds.

The modern misdiagnosis of "ESP" as a form of delusional psychosis dates back to an ancient mistrust between our species and existence as a whole that began at the time of the "confusion of tongues" following the Mesopotamian floods, some 6,000 to 8,000 years ago or so. We disassociated our species as being the sole self-aware form of life, and began to communicate verbally only instead of also mentally, or only mentally. We began to distrust the full scope of our natural instincts, and that, they say, was when civilisation began and when "man discovered God," or rather, when our species realised "the beginning of knowing you know nothing is the fear of God." Some modern biblical revisionary scholars have blamed the use of WMDs for our plight. I do not agree; I believe this choice our ancient ancestors made was a natural part of our evolutionary process, which has since also blossomed forth the entirety of our species existent and now known of civilisation.

Instead of continuing to dwell in our innocent and natural condition of telepathy and clairvoyance, our species split itself apart into factions divided against one another by a few leaders, who had colluded to agree to do so. The leaders then and almost all of them since belonged to the group of pathological liars who renounce as insanity any claims of telepathy as a natural phenomenon even being possible, let alone something we had once and have since sacrificed. Although this truth poses no real threat to anyone, they pretend it would bring an end to their ability to wisely guide us, an activity of civilisation for which we have all grown very dependent on them. Granted, the loss of pathological liars as leaders would be a gain for our species evolution, but we prefer to keep the sacred cows we milk to feed rather than to adopt and / or adapt to anything new or different. There is no harm in not wanting to lose their contributions; and there are better alternatives to an armed revolt.

There does remain much more to discuss about HOW telepathy (mind reading / think-talking) works. However, instead of learning how to use this tool, the course of our society for several hundred (if not 2000) years, at least, has set upon the concept of demonising the psyche. Why? The psyche or mind (Jechidah) uses the Free Will or ego (Chiah) of the Spirit or cosmic-mind (Neschamah) to animate the soul or E-M energy aura (Ruach), which in turn causes neural life to occur in the biological body (Nefesh). The Egyptians identified the aura or ruach as the "Ka," and specified within this the 7 "Be of Re" (Be being plural for "Ba" and "Re" being "Heru-Ra-Aten" the solar deity) correspond to the 7 chakras (nerve centres called plexi and gangliae) along the brain-stem. The "Ka" literally meant "energy shadow," or "shadow-self," while the "Be of Re" were portrayed as horses drawing the solar-chariot across the sky.

To a modern student of these topics, it should be clear the 7 "chakra" nerve centres of the brain-stem form in the foetus and develop in adults of our species as a result of an effective "morphogenetic field," comprised of a patterned template that, apparently, pre-exists the formation of biological cells in the form of an EM-energy field. For our species, we have 7 chakra nerve-centres in our brain-stems as a result of this toroid EM field collapsing in on itself in its core into a 7-twisted spiral. Other species have other forms of this same essential toroidal field. Our species has 7 due to the toroidal EM- field surrounding us each resembling a form of "Jacob's ladder" between twin poles inside the toroid's collapsed centre - one flowing up, the other down; these dipolar currents pulsing up and down our spine and brain-stem form 7 intersections between 10 points (5 opposite 5). The 5-sefirot per polarity of such a "Jacob's ladder" (alike the "tree of life" diagram of ha QBLH) would be the equivalent of the 5 fingers of a 5-dimensional omni-mind's projected "hands," and these would hold the 7 "intersections" between their "sparks" like puppet-strings which would, in turn, connect through the 4th dimension to our 3-dimensional central-nervous systems, causing the formation of the 7 "chakras" of the morphogenetic aura patterning out the formation of our cellular development.

So, if the 7 chakra nerve centres of the biological nervous-systems of our human species result from 7 pre-determined energy-aura intersections in an EM-field lattice-pattern, alike sparks rising and descending between the twin poles of a "Jacob's ladder," and this twisted spiral simply the collapsing core of our toroidal EM-aura, or "soul," the question remains HOW do these conceptualised entities communicate directly only mentally.

Here enters the concept that each of our surrounding toroidal auras reflects on its exterior a distorted image of the nearby other energy-patterns in our surrounding environment, incl. the elements, plants, animals and other people. The exterior reflection of the egos of other people surrounding us, as with oil on the surface of water, and the interior perception of our "egg-shell" soul / aura, as karmic units for us to apply choices to, are usually very different, and this causes the surface of our "egg-shell"-like soul / aura to remain opaque and vague. When we see through all our choices from a point of view outside our situation, alike from the perspective of a stranger, we clear our auras and they become more invisible and transparent.

Now, just as the distortions to perfect reflections of other people's scalar overlapping of personal EM-fields (souls, what have you) occur on the exterior surface of our aura, so too are there a fixed number of karmic "pixel"-like units comprising the interior surface of our surrounding aura (the immortal soul, etc.). These correlate to one another such that our choices distort how others see themselves reflected in our auras, and how others react to us effectively constricts our number of self-benefiting karmic-choices.

Just as the 7 chakras of our nervous systems arise due to the interior interactions of our personal EM-energy field or aura, so too is the surrounding aura soft and porous, co-created by one's self and others, but it can also serve to act as a permeable membrane for similar "sparks" or cross-carried, inter-personally transmitted karmic-units of choice in the form of thoughts. The inner, "morphogenetic" field and the surrounding aura are electro-magnetic. Thoughts, ideas and emotions can permeate this field by travelling on a medium faster and smaller than the substance of the EM-field of overlapping auras, ie. tachyons.

The 7 chakras along the spine and brain-stem are often likened to stages of development from invertebrates toward sentience. This analogy is inaccurate, misleading and wrong. Likewise, the aura or soul is seen as being the medium by which telepathic communion can occur between minds; this too is false misinformation. In humans all 7 chakras are equally active and equally important at all times (albeit most function at only 10% of full capacity for neural activity provided by the amount of cellular-circuits in the CNS), so it is false to see them as a progress from a more primitive to more socialised form. Likewise, it is not EM-sparks that jump between people's surrounding EM-fields that allow one person's mind to read another's, or for two people to "think-talk" back and forth (to "sing a song in silence," to paraphrase Trismegistus-Mazda to Asclepius-Zoroaster). The medium of tachyons occurring inside the nervous system precede and cause the chemical-cascades that occur simultaneous to the brain having a "thought." Likewise, tachyons can travel outside one's own nervous-system just as easily (and faster than photo-electric light) and enter into another person's mind. This is the medium by which telepathy can occur.

Now, the method of HOW to broadcast one's own thoughts into another person's brains, of HOW to remain open to their reactions and to intuitively deduce their inner-most (even secret) motives, is based on understanding how to, using the mind's 5-d "invisible hands," form small patterns or lattice-shapes comprised of tachyonic energy, and by projecting them onto others using the "creative visualisation" of the "mind's eye," how to move these small thought-forms about in space (and, as we shall discuss next, also time). To accomplish this requires no practise, but to control it and use it to one's own intended ends, or to any benefit, does require practise. Think of each thought you wish to project into another person's mind as a small, snow-flake like lattice shape, a pattern of invisible energy, and then, naturally and simply, apply this visual symbol into another person's skull and brains. Then they will think that thought. You can manipulate people this way; it can also be used in two-way telepathic (mind-to-mind only) communion.

To deal with the concept of our aura's gradual expansion and dissolution over cosmic-scales of time, it is best to examine how each of these "thought-forms" we project outward from us serves as a form of "intellectual offspring" that divides and parts from, to wander out and away from, but to remain connected to, our original auric field, inhabited by our free-spirits or ego-minds. As more and more such "thought-form" karmic-choice "pixel"-particles evaporate entropically away from our core biological body, our soul expands and, by this process, will eventually dissolve into one-ness with the eternal omni-versal spirit-mind (sentient or not).

To deal with the concept of how each of our own original "thought-forms" gradually evolves its own self-sentience over cosmic-time scales, we are beginning to deal with how the omni-mind of the pure tachyonic nulliverse gradually becomes more self-sentient from the inside-out (using the inter-galactic filaments like our own biological neuron-cells). Now, in dealing with how to remain in contact with distant once-close karmic-energy particles and long-ago projected tachyonic "thought-forms," one begins to deal across vast distances of space and cosmic-scales of time, on the material levels of the immortal-universal soul. This means time-travel, the division of the central time-line's self from their prior temporally-locked world-line, and the entire (complex) T4 paradigm of "killing off all other selves in parallel dimensional alternate realities."

In the normal conditions, without dealing on the cosmic-duration scales that imply time-travel, the soul experiences these "other selves" as the reflections of other individual auras on the exterior surface of their own aura, and we experience their influencing of our aura's interior as the limiting of our (beneficial) karmic choice-units. However, insofar as there is only ONE GOD, likewise, there is only ONE MIND, inhabiting all bodies throughout all time simultaneously, animating their biological cellular evolution as well as their energy-field patterns. As this one-mind comes closer to realising it exists behind and within the minds of all other people, animals, plants, elements, etc. of our universe, our multiverse, our nulliverse, etc. then the omni-mind awakens to fully-conscious self-sentience. The result of the T4 paradigm (destroying the "thought-forms" that arise at the intersections between our personal auras, ie. killing all of our own shadow-selves in all the surrounding possible directions for choice-unit divisions into other possible world-lines) is synonymous with clearing the aura's EM-field and elevating one's mental-energy level of awareness to the furthest reaches of tachyons beyond the nulliverse. When there are NO "thought-forms" or "energy-doubles" existing to transport our individual mind's ego-will onto the brains of other beings, there is nothing restraining one's mind from expanding to re-dissolve into one-ness with the omni-mind of the One True "Most High" God.

10 Shining Spark Sefirot

Here we see the ONLY 11 possible recombinations of the dipolar flow of communication between two individuals. Above are the 3 supernals, divided from below by "Daath" (the "non" sefirot signifying the negation of any form of communication. Below are the 7 stages of a cycle equivalent in attributes to the 7 "chakras," etc. All in all, what we seem to be looking at here is ha QBLHistorical "tree of life," the supposed "tree of immortality" before the fall, which was since then replaced by the "tree of knowledge." "Daath" means "Gnosis," both mean "Knowledge." Thus, the 11th "non" sefirot is the "fruit" of "knowledge" on the "tree of knowledge" that is now (since the fall) called instead the "tree of life" diagram. Not only does this list of the ONLY 11 possible recombinations of the dipolar flow of communication between two individuals correspond to the 10 luminous emanations and Daath, it begins to show us the model of the "morphogenetic field" combining the "5-d invisible hand" (of God) with the 7 chakras of the human spine. Next we will look at this full model in closer detail and offer a thorough description.

:: ha OBLH ::

The "lattice-pattern" tachyon "thought-form" that comprises the "morphogenetic field" template in our toroid aura. This shape symbolises the combinations of the original trees of life and of knowledge that grew in Eden. The original version of the tree of life was a dual-tetrahedron, called a "stelloctahedron" when co-joined, and the original version of the tree of knowledge was a dual-cube, called a "tesseract" or hypercube. Nowadays, the original version of the tree of knowledge is called the "tree of life" diagram of ha QBLH. Ha QBLH is the lattice-work chrysallis formed of tachyons surrounding us, co-joined to the toroid soul. The soul is to the spirit (that is to say, the aura is to the mind) a vessel; so too is ha QBLH for time. The mind is time seen flattened out like a map. Time is the mind seen from the side along an extended edge of this plane surface. The mind is a map of spacetime (that is, the cosmos' entire historical shape over all time would be a perfect torus). The tesseract (a 4-d cube) measures the hyper-dimensional metaform comprised of superluminal tachyons that supercedes our local cosmos as the measure ( $E=Mc^2$ ) for the conversion of matter to energy (at photon vacuum velocity squared). The stelloctahedron or hyper-tetrahedron is simply one step on the same series of scales unfolding along a cycle of expansion that includes exponentials of all 5 regular rhombic solids. If the "sum over histories" of the "multiverse" (the ideal toroid of all universal particle motion over all time) is considered a macrocosmic holo-gnomonic metaform that breaks apart into the infinite number of potential unique individual aura-patterns or souls, then the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract that charts the locations in a cyclical sequence of the nulliverse, big bang, critical mass, our modern local universe surrounded by a layer of "baby universe" parallel dimensions comprising the expanding multiverse, followed by the evaporation of this back into the nulliverse comprised of un-collapsed clear tachyon light. This cyclical sequence forms a torus, ie. the omni-mind of our cosmic "God" consciousness. The "tau-sub-tau" tesseract surrounds this as a measure of the emanation outward of tachyons beyond the omni-versal singularity we're in now, into limitless gloaming ("bright gloom") beyond. Just as the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract is to the entire multiversal torus, so too each of us is surrounded by a metaform of tachyons measuring our own soul's karma. The torus is the compass (cap) and the tesseract the square (corner). Time is the shadow-self attached behind the shining Mind.

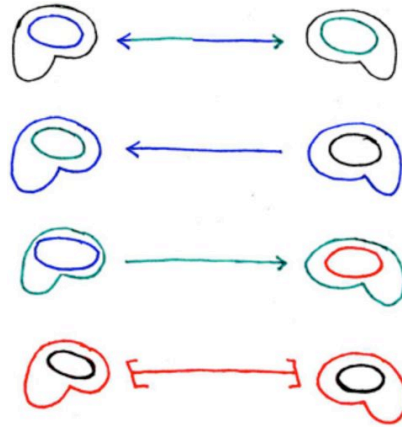

What we see in the above diagram is a simple arrangement of 32 legs and 17 intersection-circles (the so-called "sefirot" emanation points) totalling 49 attributes, which, all combined, are classed as a 50th attribute, the whole lattice form itself. There are 72 labels of traits on these because  $50 + 22 = 72$ , but also, because  $72 - 8 = 64$ , it also breaks down into the Chinese I Ching hexagrams. The traits on this diagram are only hints at the roots of written language.

Tau-sub-Tau

So, if we can say that when we look at the modern "tree of life" diagram of ha QBLH, which was originally the form of the "tree of knowledge in Eden," that it is a 4-d cube seen at "antipode," as opposed to "co-joined" (sometimes called "nested" as with the stelloctahedron of two tetrahedra) or at  $45^\circ$  (as in a tesseract), then we can compare the prior diagram (of the conjoined trees of Eden, the hypercube and hypertetrahedron) to a measure of length of which the "tau-sub-tau" diagram would then constitute a measure at an angle to that. Thus, we can see ha QBLH as a height that then, looking down on from above, we see as the depths of "tau-sub-tau." Tau-sub-tau is a more simpl labeld, "Venn" form of diagram. The highest transfinite ( $n$ ), transcendental (aleph) and imaginary (omega) number-sets comprise parts of the torus inside the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract, symbolising Goedel's Proof / "operant observer principle."

Just so, if we consider ha QBLH's combined trees of Eden model as being anything comparable to its 10 "sefirot" being alike "5-dimensional fingers" comprised of a tachyonic metaform surrounding and programming a toroidal aura energizing all living beings (the human kind of which is shown by the 7 "chakra" symbols on the central pillar of the combined trees diagram above), then we would consider the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract equivalent to the 3 supernal sefirot beyond "Daath" above these other 7 in the modern "tree of life." Thus, the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract is equivalent, again, to this model of non-verbal or telepathic modes of communion between minds.

Just as the torus is the compass and the tesseract the square, so too is " $E=Mc^2$ " a measure for the conversion of matter to energy at a speed beyond the speed of light in a vacuum, which is called simply "c" by itself. Thus, the tau-sub-tau tesseract can be seen as an invisible, intangible, tachyonic measuring mechanism built within and onto the the omni-versal singularity's cyclical torus form. Just as the tachyonic light itself (within which, like a prismatic rainbow effect in a mist of water droplettes, we see the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract) actually emanates outward from the exterior surface of the omni-versal singularity's cyclical torus form, we use the "tau-sub-tau" tesseract form to measure the distances beyond the exterior surface the tachyonic light continues to emanate. These are called "Ayin Soph Aur," for "bright limitless nothingness," "Ayin Soph," for "limitless nothingness," and "Ayin" for "nothingness," as one measures outward from the exterior of our omni-versal singularity's toroidal form toward the tesseract surface labeled "tau-sub-tau" which is, technically, only a geometric graphical depiction of Einstein's "special relativity" formula ( $E=Mc^2$ ), however expanded far beyond that speed-limit while still applying the exact same premise (by extension of exponential holognomonic expansion rates).

Now, just as the layers of "Ayin," "Ayin Soph," and "Ayin Soph Aur" measure the tachyonic halo extending beyond the exterior surface of our omni-versal, toroidal cyclical form, so too can we think of the 3 supernal "sefirot sparks" of tachyonic "thought-forms" beyond Daath above the 7 chakra as simply the interior, the width, and the exterior surface of the membranous extension of our mind into the cosmos around us, ie. our auric soul. Ayin Soph Aur is the inside surface of our aura, Ayin Soph is the measure of the membrane's width, and Ayin is the realm beyond the exterior of our aura.

the "Atlantean Alphabet"

the Atlantean Alphabet was a simple set of 5 symbols that comprised all that was known by our pre-deluvial ancestors the entire world over, but this "universal" language (based on silent telepathic communications) was lost soon after the flood, according to the religious myths, at the time of the "confusion of the tongues." Did these ideograms originally appear within the imaginations of our most ancient predecessors because of modernday ESP testing using these symbols? Could the tests have sunk deep enough into our modern component particles to reverse-influence our ancient ancestors into higher self-awareness? Such speculation is worth dwelling on.

CIRCUMPUNCT (OHM)

The "dot within a circle." The circle is black on white, the "dot" inside the circle is white on white. Thus, the circle is omnipresent, but the "dot" is occult. The "dot" is the singularity or the ajna, the mind's eye. The "circle" then reflects the boundary of space, an infinite loop with an omnipresent origin. In this way, the "dot" is the line seen head-on, while the "circle" is the single line in extension from the origin.

The circle is the first human ideogram. Variations include concentric rings (representing the moon phases and planetary orbits), spirals (representing comets and galaxies) and labyrinth motifs (representing complex civilisation), when combined with the variegation of the cross. The circle represents ONE, while the "dot" represents ZERO. ONE was known to all who were educated to this ideogram, however the concept of NONE was reserved for only the medicine men and the chiefs to grasp. This remains an essential staggering in the natural curve of our average evolution as a species to this day.

The "cosmic monad" or "circumpunct" was reflected early on in religious imagery in literature as the "smoking plant," the "bush that burned but was not consumed," which represented the "tree of life," or the herb that had given us sentience. Thus, the most important meaning of the "cosmonad" is the pupil lens of the EYE.

PLUS CROSS (THULE)

The "flyflot swastika" was the first symbol of the stem below the flower. It shows the mathematical process of addition even now, and forms the letter "t" at the start of the word "Two." The Plus Cross is a more direct design hinting at the origin point of the plane-space than even the plain circle, marking it (at an oblique "X") as the "cross-roads." The cross represents the knowledge of solar precession, with the sun at the centre of local space, and the galaxy at the core of the local universe.

The circle with a cross inside it is a symbol of Earth, and is often called "Malkuth," the Hebrew word for "kingdom." The circle on its own, particularly the "circumpunct" is a symbol of the sun, and when the sun is at the centre of the cross, it is a symbol of solar precession, which can only be measured over periods of thousands of years, thus necessitating high science and high civilisations to preserve it. When the cross is depicted alone it is symbol of the galaxy, particularly when in the standard spiral of a "yin yang," a "triskele," or a "swastika." In this event, whether the "arms" and "legs" of the flyfot reflect either a clockwise or counter-clockwise rotation, which in turn indicates the hemisphere of the planet the galaxy is being viewed from. From above, the Milky Way galaxy follows a clockwise spiral. From the southern hemisphere, it will appear to be a counter-clockwise spiral.

THREE SQUIGGLES (CHI)

The "three rivers" reflect the level of human development at which the flood occurred. We are told by the high levels of civilisation that flourished following the flood of Mesopotamia in 6000 bc that the "Gods" (the chiefs and shamans) had a much greater level of knowledge than the ordinary people at the time of the flood. According to different stories of the flood, this knowledge was lost when the Gods died in the flood, the Gods abandoned us and have left us their wisdom concealed in history, the Gods are still alive and present now, teaching their ancient wisdom from a safely disincarnate distance. The "three rivers" also represent the "fertile crescent" between the Indus and Nile river, with the twin rivers of the Tigris and Euphrates in the middle between them. We are told by ancient artefacts from the last cave-people era prior to the earliest super-civilisations that the pregnant Moon Goddess reigned as the predominant religious icon, and that the "waters" of the flood were also understood to represent her menstrual blood, drawn like a psychic tide on the moon's gravitic net, and that only when this cycle stopped was a child to be expected to follow.

The three squiggles also represent mathematical subtraction. Not only by erosion in the form of the waves they represent symbolically, but also in the image itself, which measures not only three waves, but also three peak-to-trough wavelengths on each as well. Thus, the flood is a symbol of the trinity, of the twin-bars of the cross reunited with the circle in a three-in-one / one-in-three symbol, yet concealing and only partially revealing the hidden and occluded secret of the central point of the circle representing zero. The "squiggles" thus symbolise the "emanation" or "star-fire" of three "mothers." The three squiggles also reflect the three pillars of democratic government (representative, judicial and executive),

SQUARE (TAO)

The "square" in 2D, "cube" in 3D and "tesseract" or "hyper-cube" in 4-d are all symbols of time, the "squaring" or "exponential doubling" of the diameter of the plane-circle. It is said that Aphrodite (Venus) sprang from the head of Zeus (Jupiter), and this can be seen to reflect the manner of the exponential expansion of the dot to the line to the square-plane to the cube to the tesseract, etc. This reflects a "higher dimension" of measurement to start with than the circle, because the dot, the circle, the sphere and torus measure the line seen from head-on, as a singularity, origin-point, or dot, while the square's closest 1D component is the line seen from the side, as a length. The duality of point and line is therefore reconciled in the 3 squiggle symbol between the cross + circle motif and the square symbol of exponents. The waves are simultaneously particles (circles) and waves (lines).

The square therefore acts as the corner-stone measurement of society, measuring the perfect right angle, occurring nowhere in nature, reflecting humanity's ability to impose our ideals on nature. The square thus represents the symbol of man as perfect measure as it is written in the religious history myths, "we are made and created in the image and likeness of the one who made and created us." The box is also the antithetical symbol of the cross, such that when a cube unfolds and is flattened onto a plane, it becomes a "calvary" cross (of 6 squares, the sqastika usually has 12, the "Tau" cross has 10, etc.). Because the square extends into the cube over space, and into the tesseract over time, another symbol for the box is the "X" or sideways cross, connecting the corners, rather than the mid-points. The "X" and the "t" shaped crosses overlap to form the 8-fold Middle Way of Buddha Dharma, between the 4 Noble Truths toward transcendence from reincarnation. This "wheel of the lokas" with 8 spokes is a common symbol of Buddhism. It is a combination of the square and circle symbols.

PENTAGRAM STAR (VRIL)

Just as the square symbolises exponential, rather than the spherical collapse or right-angle radiative expansion of arithmetic, patterns, it is indicative of multiplication, or the addition of additions. The Pentagram Star then represents division, or the subtraction of subtractions. Its variegating interior angles and outward stellations counter-balance ten lines of the star with the ten points between these lines, to form an ideogram that reflects the utmost height of mental evolution and civil sciences imagined by the original ancient people codifying this alphabet. It represented the five fingers on each hand, which is common to all animals as well, but especial to man as a symbol for our supremacy over nature allowed by the human thumb.

The fifth logo was the highest form of pre-deluvial theoretical science, but has been studied in secret since the time of Pythagoras. Thus, the ancients prior to Pythagoras all venerated the mysteries of the pentagram symbol. They noticed very early that  $2+3=5$  and that  $2/3$  is the "Golden ratio," which if plotted on a line, can be repeated in a fractal to form a perfect pentagram. This shape was observed also in the sidereal rotations of the planet Venus, such that in the time it takes earth to circle the sun once, Venus has circled it five times. This correlation was made to describe the Goddess Venus as the daughter of the Moon Goddess, however this aeon was not at that time believed to have occurred. Thus, Venus became associated with the crescent circle glyph, and both became associated with the lands of the fertile crescent.

the meaning of the POD "Atlantean" star.

Violet: COSMOS:: the multiverse

In the beginning, there was that which is beyond that which is. And from that which is beyond came the holy one, blessed be he, the maker and shaper, the former of all that which is. The multiverse came into existence at the same moment as the universe. It has grown while the local universe has shrunk. The multiverse of a pleroma of baby universes, formed from the oldest particles in the local universe, is the light from the surface of the dark orb of the universe, and this appears against the inky black infinity of the parent universe beyond. Thus, the "colour" we associate with the Cosmos is purple, for black-light, the closest form of light to pitch darkness.

Green: SPIRIT:: tachyons

Now, when the holy one, blessed be he, began to form and craft that which is, he took forth a basic set of principles, the first of which was comprised of Light, the second, Love, the third, Life, and the fourth, Liberty. He laid these down with a quill of Pure Will, that "higher Light" above the universal principle of the "lower light," photons. These four principles enshrined the holy one, blessed be he, as the 4 corners of a square, and designed that which is as a circle with the same area. Thus, we say the first thing the holy one, blessed be he, established was MATH, as an Idea in his own mind, and second, GEOMETRY, as the Word of that Idea. He called the square time and the circle he called space.

Blue: WATER:: gravity

Once the holy one, blessed be he, created the circle of space, and observed the four corners of time, he was pleased. He set that which is into motion. He begat the big bang, and the singularity of the universe began being. He made the corners of time to move, and to change places in an order over time. He made the great universe to churn like water. The first force to appear was gravity as a motion opposite the direction of time. In this motion God lost sight of his clear reflection in creation, and so we call this the "separation" of the waters Above and Below. Above, there is the Lord God (AHDVNHAY). Below there are the multiverse and universe as time and space, alike a square and circle.

Yellow: AIR:: electromagnetism

The next force to appear in God's crystal globe as he made and shaped the entirety of that which we know now was lightning. Sparks began to form in the evaporating mists of the waters above. The multiverse began to be pulled apart around the edge of the universe like a shell around a yoke. An atomsphere of dew and condensation, like the sweat off God's brow, began to form above the trembling darkness of the waters of the deep. This mist began to thunder with bolts of static energy. These sparks formed the earliest stars.

Orange: FIRE:: weak nuclear fission

The earliest stars were ignited when massive clouds of gas became electrically charged, forming plasma, which quickly compressed into dense spheres of flames. Thus was fission, the weak nuclear force, next to be born within the looking glass of the divine creator. As these sparks ignited, they were reflected in the eye of God, that all-encompassing bright-darkness of the parent-universe surrounding our own singularity. So we say that, like the tears of God, these far few sparks or "sols" were formed alike unto angels, forever singing the praises of their divine maker and modeler. However, these stars did not live forever. As the oldest ones burnt out, they punctured holes out of space into time, and began consuming the interior of the universe into the exterior multiverse surrounding us. So it is said that a portion of the heavens have fallen, which means that many stars still visible to us now have already burnt out or been consumed into larger black holes.

Indigo: EARTH:: strong nuclear fusion

As the quantum foam came to a rolling boil around the outer-edges of the spherical universe, and the multiverse of time grew while the local universe diminished, God looked down and saw the universe, that it was Good, and was well pleased in His creation. The weight of his gaze penetrated to the depths of space and activated the fourth force to be formed, the strong nuclear force of fusion. This simple gesture by God united the planets together, and allowed the formation on earth of complex-macro-molecules that would give rise to the earliest known forms of life here. Just as now matter, the fusion of atomic elements, governs the local universe, anti-matter, or dark-energy, fuels the exterior multiverse.

Red: MAN: the local universe

The final miracle of God before resting was the creation of mankind as a micro-cosm of all these elements. He took the red-clay dirt of the EARTH, then mixed with it his own breath, the wind. Thus mankind was set above the stars, even the black-holes, for our role in the destiny of this universe is not fixed, as is their's. For inside the hearts of living beings is the spark of life, and this connects us each directly to God. So we see, in the final design, man is the measure, stretched across the Abyss, that connects all the five elements. The white square surrounding the red star of MAN represents his spirit, which is a reflection of time.

The entire POD "Atlantean" system is colour-coded according to the spectrum split from white light by a prism. The best acronym for this is "Roy G. Biv" meaning Red-Orange-Yellow-Green-Blue-Indigo-Violet. To apply this to the entire preceding description, look at the picture of the pentagram-star within a pentagon surrounded by five petagram-stars. Follow the ROYGBIV pattern from one colour to the next. This yields the progression of related attributes of:

Red = MAN
Orange = FIRE
Yellow = AIR
Green = SPIRIT
Blue = WATER
Indigo = EARTH
Violet = COSMOS

also, although it is not implicitly labeled:

White = TIME
BLACK = OUTERVERSE

Now, the order of the elements as they are associated with the colours is different from the order of the colours in an ordinary, prism-split ray of light. Instead of the regular ROYGBIV, we find that the elements formed in the order:

OUTERVERSE = the "parent" universe's black hole containing the baby-universe we live in.

SPIRIT = superluminal tachyons, anti-matter or dark-energy

COSMOS = the singularity of our own universe, surrounded by the corners of the 4 elements and spirit as a multiverse

TIME = the motion of matter, causing entropic decay into energy

WATER = gravity (gravitons = the supraluminal "Higgs Boson")

AIR = electromagnetism (electrons)

FIRE = weak nuclear fission (stars, protons)

EARTH = strong nuclear fusion (planets, atoms)

MAN = mankind's evolution into increasing sentience from basic cells.

the pattern formed for the colours by relating them in this way to the formation of the elements following the creation of our universe (the "big bang") is thus no longer ROYGBIV, the exact split by a prism of a beam of white photons. Instead it follows:

OUTERVERSE = black

SPIRIT = green

TIME = white

COSMOS = violet

WATER = blue

AIR = yellow

FIRE = orange

EARTH = indigo

MAN = red

Thus yielding the pattern: GVBYOIR (as opposed to ROYGBIV). This pattern (GVBYOIR) is colour-coded according to the spectrum, however is represented on the above "POD star" depiction as a different pattern of connections from one colour to the next. However, also notice that the pattern from one shape to the next in the above diagram following the ROYGBIV colour-coded pattern yields a spin around the colours of the shapes in a counter-clockwise motion (beginning rightward from the lower right), and that the pattern of elemental formation attributed to them follows a motion associating the colours of the same shapes in a counterclockwise spiral, beginning from the upper-left and proceeding downward. Follow the red star to the orange star, then around counter-clockwise: ROYGBIV. Then start with the green star down to the red star, then to the left and around clockwise: GVBIOYR. The significance of this is in the rotational direction of the colour-coded pattern: the word-colours correspond to the triangle-colours in a counter-clockwise progression.

A squared circle constructed using the ratios of earth and moon.

Imagine looking down at a sun-dial. As the sun changes position in the sky above the stationary gnomon, the shadows will revolved around clockwise if one is standing facing north (in the N. Hemisphere, or alternately south in the southern hemisphere).

Now imagine lying down beneath the sun-dial, so that your head is directed north (or toward the closest pole), but you are looking upward towards the sky. Now the sun will rise on your left, and will set on your right, just opposite a moment ago, when you were standing facing north. Just so, from this position the measure of the shadows will appear to rotate counter-clockwise.

Looking toward the pole demonstrates our planets' rotation "clockwise" around its axis (moving from west to east, thus appearing as a "clockwise" circle from above either pole. However, if we orient our own point of view toward the tropical equator of our planetary sphere, time itself will appear to revolve in reverse.

Here is a squared circle of my own. Think of the outer-square as time, the interior-most square as spirit, and the area of the square between them is the multiverse, the same area as the circle, the cosmos.

Because we have the direction of rotation followed by both the prism-split spectrum and the formation of the elements, we can orient our model of the POD star to its place on a larger spherical coordinate geometry, ie. our own globe. The four cardinal directions operate counter-clockwise to one another, so if we began in the east at dawn, and moved (south in the north, or north in the south hemisphere) counter-clockwise, we would be facing away from the nearer pole, and toward the equator. This model is meant to be viewed on the interior of a ceiling, looking upward. Thus the green star on top of the POD star model would be facing toward the nearest pole if graphed onto a globe.

:: ATLANTIAN DEMOCRACY ::

HOUSING

When any member of the Order of Death awakens from their need for further rest and slumber, the world is improved and enlightened. They begin their waking lives by sitting up from a gloomy shroud of darkness inside an enclosed structure. This is their bedroom in their home. In the homes in the New Jerusalem, that is, the ascended city of Enoch in heaven, the minds of those whose bodies remained in sleep below arise into a realm of eternal clear bright light in the realms above and beyond all material reality. The walls of their homes are translucent stained glass, and their homes are all combinations of the same basic tessellated solids, leaving room between their modular hives for hallways, chutes and ladders. These modular condominiums provide tensegrity for the structural integrity of large buildings to grow similarly to how the hexagonal cells of a quartz crystal propagate. Instead of stacking cubes on top of cubes and building upward, a single room with a certain number of sides or walls can metastasize into a building with an equal or derived number of wings, floors, rooms, etc. alike a common "snow-flake" style of fractal. Because fractals propagate around the outer-edges of strange-attractors, there are large open spaces within and between the manifold of surrounding houses. Much like a "menger sponge" the complete structure possesses nearly zero solid volume but covers a maximum amount of area using empty space. Each room's shape corresponds to a pattern of tessellations determined by the number of sides of the floor, and on the total number of walls. Many individual houses are based on the truncated octahedron's unfolded tiling pattern as their blueprint. Others are semi- or demi-regular tessellation patterns, combining multiple shapes and solid forms. The basic building blocks are the 3 prime polyhedra (the triangle, square and pentagon) that combine to comprise the 5 "Platonic" solids themselves on which the Atlantean Society is founded and based. Atlantean architecture embraces an expanding fractal pattern elaborating outward from a simple core into an infinitely bifurcating complexity asymptote. Because the purpose is to maximize space and depth by opening the walls up to create a tensegrity for the building's structural integrity, the walls themselves are a crystalline, glass-like substance that can vary its degree of opacity. Along the edges between the walls, ceilings and floors run fiber-optics that can illuminate these glass-like walls any colour.

FOOD

Because the city of New Jerusalem is in Paradise, we may base our ideas upon it, yet may never fully achieve its ideals down here on the terrestrial planes below. Thus, we know only of the foods of Eden that they resemble enormous gems, emeralds, rubies, diamonds, jewels, etc.; that their flavour is that of intoxicating perfumes and that their substance is meant to feed our knowledge, our mental awareness, our brains themselves. Some have called the food eaten in and outside of Eden in Enoch, the so-called New Jerusalem of resurrected pre-deluvial Atlantis: Amrtia, Zro, the Shem-Manna, soma, lotus, muscari, ayuasha or marijuanna oil. All the natural substances and all their chemical compounds are food for the minds of those willing to utilise them. There is no single right method of eating or maintaining health that is universally applicable to all and everyone. Some have hypothesised of the aesthetic ideals of Atlantis that they were not "art for art's sake" but were harnessed into the employment of the state; this much is as true for their food as well - that it was not meant to feed the body, but to feed the mind. Like art that is "eye-catching" the mind's eye is like a mouth that eats, that ingests and consumes stimuli both real and imaginary. We are each attracted to eat, dress, speak, think and act as unique individuals, no two of us with exactly identical tastes in style. We say, thus, of the food in Atlantis, or paradise, that it is widely enough variant to provide unending recombinations.

COMMUNICATION

The edges of the walls, ceilings and floors of all the buildings in Atlantis / Enoch / New Jerusalem are wired with fiber-optics that allow any wall of any room in any building to serve as a crystalline view-screen. The people who live in this city in Paradise now are the minds who outlived the bodies of those who died there when the flood destroyed it on the earthly plane. Thus, all communication between all these beings is telepathic because they are minds alone, and do not possess "bodies" as we think of them now, but rather auras instead, or malleable energy-fields they control and can re-shape at will. Such is the true, naked nature of the mind in Paradise, a state of innocent grace. Because all the people living in Atlantis are only mind-beings without bodies of flesh, blood, bone, organs, etc., and because thus all their communication is telepathic, all communications also occur instantaneously. This is allowed by the nature of the monetary currency in Atlantis being ZPE, a form of faster-than-light energy field that can be pulsed to contain coded messages of information. Because this communication can occur before the event itself has been seen to have fully taken place, it allows a degree of precognizance and pre-recognition of possible, likely future outcomes. Although there is instant communication between individual minds, there is not a single omni-sentient hive-mind comprised of all the minds of all the Atlanteans combined. Instead, there is utter freedom for the mind to travel anywhere, to observe and discern any real thing and to learn and understand all things it can imagine or desire to study. Although thoughts can be beamed directly from one mind-being to another over any distance, each mind-being is its own uniquely self-aware consciousness.

EDUCATION

As it is promised in the Atlantean Constitutions, education of a newborn in the telepathic methods of the Order of Death may begin no sooner than 9 months following its conception, which we in the POD uphold to be the moment of the coming-into-being or creation of conscious, self-aware life. However, because the citizens of Atlantis are mind-beings only without any form of body, it follows thus there cannot be such a thing as "intellectual property right," because the off-spring of mind-beings are ideas. New ideas become more complex systems of mental patterns until they form a fully functioning self-aware mind of their own. Thus, "intellectual offspring" or ideas of any mind-being cannot be considered a "good" or "service" that can be commodified and owned. No more so is the child the slave of the parent than is any idea solely the product of its creator's own mind. The primary capstone of the Order's telepathic education methods is the philosophical goal of eradicating intellectual property rights on the grounds that all we can do is discover new truths within and about our reality that we all share. These truths, that are all we can hold in our own minds while we continue to be alive, were here before us, will be here after us, and are parts of the permanent "invisible" landscape; our own minds are merely like netting through which the universal mind's thoughts pass like clouds. There is no pride over ownership, only recognition for a new discovery. All citizens of Atlantis up to and including the Pope of the Lemurian Church-Bank are considered as like mere children beside God. Thus, all those who have entered paradise have come into it as like children, and so no one is exempt from learning more at any time. Even a newborn can teach and reveal much to even the oldest and most popular of Popes.

INFRASTRUCTURE

The immediacy of information availability, the telepathic link shared by all Atlanteans, also allows a mind-being there to travel instantly to any point at any time, including even to various alternate future time-lines as well. The entire net linking all minds in the past universes, the present universe, and the various potential future universes, is itself an isomoprhic knot that is self-connected and comprised of only one single long strand of figurative fibre, in this case a calabai-yau diameter super-symmetric string - the same one connecting all the galactic black holes into the filaments resembling neurons in the universal brain. This single train-of-thought that inter-connects all particles across all time-lines to form a single omni-sentient mind-being is, itself, called the "Universal Enochian Communications System." It is this network that allows the existence and commodification into packets of "zero-point" energy (ZPE), and which allows the continued functioning of the economy in Atlantis based thereon. The "ECS" on all levels is the "information super-highway" of thoughts inside the mind of God; it is useful to those of us who dwell within this universe for faster than light communication and travel. It is this ECS which comprises the roads, bridges, tunnels, dams, power-plants, etc. of the "infrastructure" of Atlantis. So long as the universe can be composed as it is now, there will exist a place trans-finite minds can gather to utilise the ECS in this way. The combination of all these minds into a single culture is the city of Atlantis.

UTILITIES

Because the universe itself acts as a power-plant generating ZPE, and because the living mind is capable of serving as the conduit which can package and confine varying quantities of ZPE, and because ZPE allows the creation of worm-holes mentally, and thus of mental manifestation of matter from nothingness, the ECS provides limitless free access to universal ZPE which may be tapped into at any time in any location by anyone telepathic. This allows one to construct any impliment - toy, tool or weapon - any form of structure - for housing or transportation, and any form of reality one wants to, to go anywhere in this universe or beyond, to do anything they can imagine to desire. Because the source of ZPE is entropy, and because entropy is caused by the passage of time decaying matter into energy, ZPE is limitless and free. However this does not make the regulation of its use impossible. Records in a central location can be collected from various satellite node locations about who uses ZPE where, when, why, how, etc. the same as one can form a core ideal by collecting information about it toward a central point from surrounding sources. The monitoring of ZPE use, by whom and why, etc. is a parallel issue besides ZPE being limitless "free energy." Even though no one may be prevented from using ZPE in such a system, all uses of it would be recorded and could be used as evidence of criminal activity held against one by a jury of 13. Such is the "economy" and "utilities industry" of Atlantis one and the same substance, ZPE, controlled by PSI.

TRANSPORTATION

The soul or aura is its own vimana or vril-energy merkabah. Once one has awakened to their true potential for telepathy and become a member of the Order of Death with rights as a citizen of Atlantis, one becomes aware of many facts previously invisible to them, and learns many hidden truths. When one is day-dreaming, and one's mind wanders toward the stars, or when one is half-asleep and staring into space, one is liberating one's mind to travel to any location in the universe at any place in space or time. This is accomplished easily enough, however following this initial intuition with deduction, we can narrow down the unlikely to arrive at only the most probable conditions for reality in our target location. By studying this method, we can strengthen our bonds to realities unknown to many, but accessible to all. The mind can disappear from one place and reappear in another instantaneously. The mind, itself, is the vessel inside which the mind's eye travels. When we change the focus of our mind's eye, we change the content and context of what is on our own minds. We change the surrounding reality around ourselves using perception. Likewise is the reality surrounding ourselves ever changing when we are being moved along inside a vehicle. The mind can be like a loose-knit netting through which ZPE passes like clouds, but it can also be like a firm sail caught and pushed ahead by the same motion of wind in the air. The tension of one's concentration is determined by one's focus.

PROFESSIONS

Because all mind-beings alive in Atlantis, as well as all others in the Order besides those who have entered or live in paradise, are all equally infinite in their potential capacity for telepathic education and learning all there is to know, no one can be said to be "smarter" or "more psychic" than anyone else in Atlantis. Everyone knows best what they must in order to be able to survive best through any given situation. All other knowledge is secondary. Having become well-read is irrelevant in a culture based on all knowledge being shared by all individuals equally. The study of Moby Dick or the Bible will not advance you in importance in the ranks of Atlantean society. Because the ability to manifest matter using mind alone is the cornerstone of the Lemurian church-bank's currency of economy, the method of progressing in importance in such a society is by acquiring the rights to more and more ZPE in order to construct, on the largest scale possible, the best forms of manifestation to serve the greatest number of living beings. Thus, the only way to fail in such a society is to "opt out" and choose to not manifest anything positive or beneficial to one's self or others; or worse, to intentionally generate self-destructive matter. Because ZPE is not self-regulating for applying morality to its use, so it falls to others to regulate when a crime has been committed. Because we are all free in heaven to do anything we wish, crimes are allowed to be committed, because they can only be punished afterwards. Thus, there are those whose job is to do "good" for such a premised society, and those pitted to do "evil" against it.

VOTING

Another activity that can take place on a daily basis in the life of any Atlantean citizen involves participation in psychic government, so-called "Atlantean Democracy." There are constantly elections being held among groups in various areas that non-psychics remains unaware of but that are invisibly veiled to telepaths who can see through lies and across vast distances. Such "elections" are simply democratic group choices resulting from various "campaign platforms" presented by differing points of view on any issue under debate or that is a topic of even casual discussion. For example, consider that, for a non-psychic, it would be impossible for a man in an office building in New York city to know the private details of a discussion in a closed meeting in an opposing company's office building in Hong Kong. Whether their motive is for good or bad use of such information, telepathy allows both the group meeting in Japan and the man in the US to know what each other know instantly, even in different time-zones. Because telepathy (PSI over ZPE) is a pre-requisite for membership in the Order of Death or citizenship in Atlantis, this much is taken for granted among those of us who are telepathic. The premise of "Atlantean Democracy" is for those who know best to be given the largest number of public votes by everyone involved, and to avoid ever having a single dictator, or a state run only by any small, secretive cabal. A dictator arises when only one person knows "best," and a cabal or conspiracy arises when a small, secretive group seeks to consolidate power among fewer and fewer hands. Once one is caught in a cabal, only the quest for your own dictatorship can follow. However, Atlantean Democracy allows a way to avoid this trap, and for the most number to prosper from doing so, by remaining open and honest at all times, and avoiding corruption and the temptations toward graft and bribery. When a man with vital news in New York can sway the vote of a secret group of businessmen in Japan instantly, without any prior knowledge of their group existing, then we can be secure in a working system of psychic government, where only those with the best insights determine the "campaign platforms" presented as options to solve the issue under discussion by any group, anywhere, even autonomously.

BANKING

Another daily business, besides participating in the decision-making processes of all groups to which your expertise could allow you entrance, is participating in the economy. Just as today, bank buildings offer the service of withdrawing and depositing money (presently we use "bills of credit" but the whole concept of money is "wampum": a symbol for value that has no intrinsic valuable qualities about itself) so too in Atlantis (where instead of paper cash, gold coins, or even oil commodities, they have substituted ZPE, the "5th element" force of tachyons), however in Atlantis when you deposit their currency, you are diminishing the free market total of an energy commodity, and when you withdraw from them you are increasing it. Thus, to limit universal entropy, lending rates can be leveraged to decrease withdrawals and the liquidity of their form of "capital." Likewise, to increase universal entropy, lending rates can be decreased to encourage stimulus spending, thus generating excess energy entering the continuum of currency. Banking is, however, only one of spending one's "money" (or in this case, the "esoteric" energy of time itself) in any free market economy. It is not even requisite one has an account with any bank in a free society. A society based on free energy should be nothing if not an advocate for individual liberties, rights and sovereignty. Ideally, the church-bank system of Lemuria would not even exist. The purpose of banks is to rob the free market of liquid capital. However, in any system where spending is monitored, banks will exist as moral accountants.

STORES

Another method of exchanging currency (in this case ZPE) besides depositing it into savings in a bank-vault is to exchange it for a good or service from a merchant store. When one participates in the free (non-taxed and not on loan) exchange of finance, one is accomplishing the improvement of the liquid capital of the free market economy (in this case the energy level of the whole universe). When you use ZPE as currency, as financial "capital," or as wampum, a token-exchange system, etc. you are taking some of your own energy, and contributing it to someone else or a group of others, and in exchange they are giving you back an equal amount of energy, only in another form. Just as they can take your energy and expend it however they want following the exchange, so too would one only exchange their own energy for some form or function they needed that energy to be in they could not accomplish for themselves. This need for others, their expertise and input, is an innate trait of consciousness. It necessitates democracy, and in turn is necessitated by the nature of the mental micro-within-macrocosm. Just as the individual's mind works, creating a memory castle to compartmentalise and rationalise its various recollections and sensory stimulus data, so too does the universal mind operate, and we ourselves are the compartments in which God stores some knowledge here, others there. We not only know best what is needed most for our own survival, we also know those who can best help us in our course along the way. When we exchange information, energy, thoughts or ZPE with these others, we enliven the entire economic continuum of energy in the universe.

FASHIONS

Although discussed slightly before, the concept of clothing in heaven is not the same as the concept of clothing on earth as we think of it now. When a mind-being who has no body speaks of "clothing," they mean the body into which they inhabit themselves. Thus, in one season one sort of physical body might be in fashion, while in the next another. However the "seasons" of souls last much longer than those of we mere mortals who yet sleep. Thus, if we consider that here on our planet, empires rise and fall over the course of thousands of years, we can see how these arise, peak and deteriorate from within due to the seasonal changing of their native climates over the aeons. Thus, a season for a soul whose mind dwells in Atlantis is three aeons, each of 2000 years. Thus, for our planet, due to its 23.5° angle of inclination and its tidally-locked moon, every 6000 years the season progresses through one of four weather patterns per hemisphere (obviously when it is winter in the south it is summer in the north and vice versa, etc.). Thus, we see that, even over the longest time-spans we mortals could imagine, fashions change with the seasonal weather. The flesh and clothing styles of we mortals whose minds inhabit may change thousands, even millions of times per one such season of these souls, but we are only their ideas, while theirs are the minds who invent our own thoughts.

LEISURE

Recreational activities in such a world, where ZPE is only regulated after the fact, where free will can reign in total control over whole large sections of our shared material universe, etc. largely revolve around more purely aesthetic (art for art's sake) pursuits of creativity such as satire and statistics. Nature is seen as a place to experiment with the existing, to remix it from one place with alike kinds from somewhere else, and to see what yields the most pleasing result. Bonzai botany trims the asymptotically bifurcating branches of the infinite possible future realities in the so-called "garden of forking paths" such that the shape taken by each root, the trunk, every branch, stick, stem, twig and leaf is perfectly in harmonic accord with the plans of the one whose hand holds the pruning knife. Just so, the exertion of energy for its own sake is seen, among psychics, as resulting from the boredom of the sex-drive. When the sex-drive is redirected into mental pursuits, it ceases to be blocked in a lower, more physically-driven chakra centre. In general, because in such a society work, taxes, voting and banking would all be voluntary and could be opted out of entirely if one so chose, there is a greater quantity of leisure time than work-related or task-specific spending of time. In this sense, because being free means having excess free time, the mind-beings of Atlantis are more focused on inspiring creativity in themselves and others than in pursuing any particular sport or game. It is seen as far better to participate in political choices than to play lesser political games.

FAMILY

Because the role of slavery exists now, it can be argued that it does so only so long as it must do so, and that, though we may want to wish it away, we must work to phase its practise out in our modern day. The form of slavery practised now (in the 21st century ad) is psychic-slavery, mental-bondage, the crushing belief that you must obey even what seems like failure, doom and suicide only because no one else is proposing any better alternative ideas. This occurs when one person is a psychic slave of another. One person is less intellectual, or less assertive with their charisma, etc. and so they become the submissive side of the equation, while the other is more so in all the traits and qualities the former is less so in, and they form the dominant side of the equation. Thus, some psychics use their psychic power to manipulate less assertive or intelligent fellow psychics that they are, themselves, in fact NOT actually psychic at all. By believing yourself less than you can be, let alone less than you really are, you are agreeing to a philosophy of self-defeat. All of us are equally gifted and able to use our minds to express ourselves. Not all of us are able or willing to admit that to themselves, and so some become subservient by nature, and fall prey to less morally scrupulous perpetrators of subliminal manipulation. We in the "Pythagorean" segment of the population of Atlantis, the so-called "Order of Death," believe the opposite of slavery is family's chief value. To instill rugged individualism and a sense of innate liberty are considered chief roles in the home-life of all Atlantean citizens.

What is "Atlantean Democracy"?

Atlantean Democracy is defined as an approachable and amenable system of government based on ideal #-theory.

the Atlantean Constitutions (current and complete) can be read online here:
<http://www.4shared.com/document/bTCEQWMc/Atlantis.html>

Here is a brief run-through of the contents of these Constitutions:

Beginning on page 10, we introduce the three branches of the government in the "book of prayers," which contains the oaths to be taken by each branch before convening a meeting. The three branches of Atlantean Democracy are:

23 member Senate
13 member Jury
7 Chief Executives

On page 11, we find three clauses, corresponding to the three levels of initial psychic-initiation of the Atlantean Democratic school system.

On page 13, we find the Atlantean Citizens' "Bill of Rights," guaranteeing each individual sovereignty and direct Democracy. It also introduces the gaming system used to reflect the Atlantean government, which I'll return to here again in a moment.

Page 14 provides the State-side declaration of rights, rules, responsibilities, etc. This is also the first mention of the "church/bank" of Lemuria in these Constitutions. They are given as necessary to the State only to provide armaments to the Jurors to hunt down criminal suspects.

Pages 16 & 17 provide the "Constitution of the Pope," that is, the one of the seven chief executives that also acts as nominal head of the Lemurian "church/bank." The choice to create the office of Pope is optional, and it can also be disbanded at any time.

Pages 20 & 21 provide the "Constitution of the Executives" (ongoing), outlining the laws governing all free citizens living under Atlantean Democracy.

Pages 22 & 23 provide the "Constitution of the Congress" that establishes the ranks, titles and numbers of people necessary to operate the various levels and stages of Atlantean Democracy.

There are various diagrams throughout the text which I will explain as we go on.

Here are some videos including an explanation of the gaming form of "Atlantean Democracy," as well as showing the model of the dodecahedronal Senate building.

I can answer any questions generated by this document, these videos and this website. I am not here to encourage nor discourage any of you to join nor to shun the POD. This thread is meant as an open debate forum for the concept and feasibility of "Atlantean Democracy" as a possible alternative form of global government to the one-world-dictator of the NWO's "Protocols." Please feel free to ask me anything, to discuss these concepts openly and freely, and to propose alternative solutions to any problems you may see in them. I look forward to a fun debate.

NOTE BENE:

there are already two threads here on ATS discussing the Lemurian "church/bank" aspect of the POD system:

So, here in this thread I want to avoid the more purely economic and religious aspects of Atlantean Democracy, and try to look at only the state side aspect of it. The best way to do this is to briefly study the constitutions (linked in the OP).

In point of fact, the Lemurian Church/Bank "degrees" in the full POD system are actually lower in rank than the Atlantean Democratic state-side. As given from page 23 of the Constitutions:

Shamen&Wizards::Lemuria::lunar:Ka

8°:: Priest:Binah

ADNY:AyinSophAur::church:3V°:2VI°:1VII°=6::7:23
minimum needed to comprise a "church" = 3 OES, 2 GD, 1 OTO = 6

EHEIEH:Ayin::Court:7V°:5VI°:3VII°:1X°=16::1:7

This explains, concisely, the members of each of the Lemurian "church/bank" and the Atlantean Democracy "degrees" of the POD system.

Introduction to "Atlantean Democracy" 101

Before we can look at the game, "Democracy," as it was played in old Atlantis, we must first acquaint ourselves with the board, player-pieces and dice. I will introduce some concepts for the rules as we go along also.

Senate, above-view

Let's begin with a look at the overall playing-table. Around the outside we see five "lodges," or sides of the playing-table. The topmost left is WATER, the top-most right is AIR, the lower right is FIRE, the lower-left is EARTH, and the green "lodge" is public, for up to three additional "non-players" (who have no pieces of their own, but can vote to control the other players' pieces).

Senate Floor

Here we can see that the senate floor has three round step-levels (called Senate, Jury and Chiefs, ascending). On the top-most of these concentric-ring step-circles are the three pillars (represented in the game as three groups of dice): the pillar (3 dice), the column (2 dice) and the pedestal (1 die). These dice, once reached, can "spin" the different levels per-piece, either "clock" (for even number rolls) or "count" (for odds).

Each player begins with 5 pieces (Senators per Lodge), and each of these pieces has two additional extra-lives in case they die. The pieces begin off the board inside each "Lodge," and the player chooses which pieces to use and when.

Senate Floor

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EQ0sOv1gZNs>

Here is a video of the Senator-pieces placed on the Senate-floor playing-board. The placement of the pieces in this arrangement is based on the standard strategic offensive-manoeuvre in the start of the game. The players all surround their corner in a phalanx. This is called the "Enochian arrangement," because it somewhat resembles Enochian Chess.

set 1: Enochian Dice and Senators

In this picture we see the 5 "Senator-pieces" for the WATER Lodge arranged by ascending rank. At the bottom is the "Essene Zealot" (York Rite Bund); next up the "Knight Zion" (Scot Rite Bund); next the "Rosicrucian" (AMORC, SRIA); followed by the "Illuminati / Golden Dawn" Senator; and lastly the "OTO" Senate Chair. Behind them all is the Rosicrucian Lemurian Cardinal, triumphant above a "Logic Dice."

To make your own pieces for this game just download this picture and hit print.

Logic Dice

It's the same with this. This print maps onto a 1-inch (wooden) cube, which can be bought almost anywhere. This structure is the "Logic Dice," comprised of the elements:

HOW = red text on purple = MAN
WHEN = pink on yellow = EARTH
WHERE = blue on orange = FIRE
WHAT = purple on red = COSMOS
WHY = yellow on pink = AIR
WHO = orange on blue = WATER

Logic Dice

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aU8NZQagwS8>

Here is a brief instructional video on the shape of the "Logic Dice" once done.

The method of using the Logic Dice is that each Lodge player has one, and on their turn can either "confront" (roll the pillar-dice if any are applicable to them), "retreat" (move a piece on the board), or "roll" (the Logic Dice). If the Logic Dice lands on another player's color-coded side, then the game skips to them and they take the next turn. This is called "Passing the Motion." The player who rolled the dice can "opt out" by a coin-flip, but if they lose, the Motion is Passed.

There is also a complex "voting" system involved that allows up to 3 non-players to participate in the game as well. Once a player has completed their move, whoever the next player in turn is can call the previous players' move to a vote. If the piece in question is on the lowest step, the vote includes all players (5pieces X 4players = 20) + 3 non-players (with 2 votes each). If the piece is on the middle-step, only 13 votes are counted by pieces drawn by lot. If the piece is challenged on the top level, the result is determined by best 3 out of 5 coin toss.

PART 1C1A: the changes from the present system to the neo-Sethian system

INTRO: why do all the senators wear masks?

There are 3 "pillars" of Atlantean Law: 2 are represented by the twin "tablets of the Law," inscribed on the front with the numerical "commandments" and on the back with the proper "Kamea" sigils of the Atlantean kings. The 3rd is represented by the Senate "board" of 64 tyled squares, on which the Senate conducts all of its daily businesses.

The 23 Senators function like "playing pieces" on this "game board." The result is the original game of Senet, based partially on what has come down to us through the Golden Dawn under the name "Enochian Chess." The Atlantean game of "Democracy" was indeed much more complex than any game since, since they all originate with it, so it contained them all as well.

The 23 Senator "chess-pieces" comprise only 1 level of functionality operating on this 64-tyled "Senate-square." However for the rest of us living on their level, that is, the level of human beings, the mid-point between macrocosmic cyclical patterns (increasingly random by scale of scope) and microcosmic quantum foam (becoming increasingly cellular structured), the role of these 23 "Atlantean Senators" is argueably the most important.

The 23 Senators are all masked for the same reason Egyptian Masonry formed based on the system of five equal "lodges" in a recycling "bund" order, and to thus provide each Senator with two "alternates." In direct Democracy, murder is common, although not in either serial or mass format, as per crime or war. No, in Direct Democracy, based on an odd number system, when there can be no tied-votes, there is a very real threat of danger from personal-harm to the person who casts the tie-breaking vote from any popular or powerful faction they vote down or against.

The 32 pieces of a Chess set are easily done off with during a game of chess, with little thought to the immorality of desensitization to murder this act indoctrinates. On the other hand the names of the 7 long-lived "pre-deluvial" rulers of Kish on the Babylonian King's List did not represent literal men, but the names of the founders of political party movements. In truth, every few days, on average, another Senator would be killed in Atlantis.

PART 1: the coming global economy, society and government.

The central theme of this essay will be the divergence between the twin realities that currently remain over-lapping, and will until +2012YP. These time-lines will re-converge again in or around +3000YP. The "heaven dimension" or better reality of these I will be refering to as "Atlantean Democracy" or the "restoration mission of the POD." The "hell dimension" or worse reality of these I will be refering to as the millennarian eschatological agenda of the "neo-Sethians."

PART 1A: history of the globalist movement

Although it is obvious the likelihood of a global government has increased in direct relation to the asymptote of human population growth over the last 100 years, the plan to establish global government has been the motivating goal of the "conspiracy" since prior to the Rothschild's esoteric empire of capital. In point of fact, the origins of the quest to restore ideal direct Democracy arose immediately from its shards as soon as Atlantean global government fell and shattered. In truth, even this event occured over a long duration, and between the height of rule by Enoch from Agade, in Antarctica called Nibiru, and the final fall of the last widest dispersion of Lemurian, coastal Cromagnon tribes-people with the Mesopatamian flood of only 8000 years ago, countless days' suns rose and fell into the endless west of night-time.

The best method of maintaining coherency throughout study of history (called by that brute Aristotle "meta-physics," meaning the study of "pre-origins") is to follow what has been called by Frazer the "Golden Bough," or elsewhere refered to as "Ariadne's thread," or the "perennial tradition." Thus, to find similarities between any two "esoteric" counter-cultural groups at different points in the entirety of recorded history, we have to compare their use of numbers in their systems of reckoning. Foremost, the importance (or lack thereof) to any group of adhering to fixed traditional sets of sums in their structural hierarchy, the so-called "chain of command," used within the group directly determines their inevitable success (or failure). This works both ways, such that groups can succeed using good number-systems, even if they advocate morally bad causes. Nevertheless, their inevitable ultimate success or failure will be predictable entirely due to the rate predicted therefore by all prior groups who have used their same number-system to construct their hierarchy and motifs.

By applying this method across history, we can reverse-engineer the current POD "bund" system from the entirety of recorded history, and follow what groups now correspond to what groups whenever before now, and thus make accurate predictions about which groups exist now will succeed and which will fail based on a comparison of the ones now to the ones then in the specific terms of their relative number-systems. The POD "bund" system this study yields is a base-5 number-system.

PART 1A1: the POD "bund" order of 5 ranks

The way the POD "bund" system functions is that, at any point in history, including the present, there can be assumed to be no more than 5 top-most prevalent groups operating relative to one another globally. These five groups are, in themselves, established thus as across all time, a historical constant. It is simply the nature of the unfolding evolution of time that these 5 groups change roles relative to one another over the durations. That there are 5 is a universal axiom. The role each plays changes every re-generative cycle. The larger the group, the longer the regenerative cycle, and so these 5 operate at a roughly Aeonic-duration (2000-year long) calendar.

In effect, the sole difference between the "Aeons" of the Gnostics and the "Seasons of the Pope" of the POD (marked by the same period of time), is that at the level of the 12, yielded from the double-7, base-14 "Seasons of the Pope," there are 7 "Archons" or "Rulers," (the 7 pre-deluvial Atlantean kings), while at this same level, relative to groups (rather than to a single group of individuals) the key digit is not 7, but 5, because there will be 5 groups, and the most powerful will always have 7 members.

PART 1A2: the cycling out of the oldest order

Due to the process of change among the relationships of the orders in the "bund" system to one another "shuffling" the 5 groups over time, there will be, about once every 2000 years or so, the formation of a new group, which will necessitate the death of an older, existing group, in order to maintain the sum of 5 groups top-most prevalent at any given time in history. The result is that, every 2000 years, the "Archons" celebrate the change of an "Aeon" as the "Equinox of the Gods" or "coming of age" ritual, where the oldest group "passes the torch" to the youngest group.

For the past 8000 years, this process has been celebrated esoterically by occult orders that belong to the "psychic conspiracy," who share the sacred secret science as sects cowering in shadows. At the turn of every other millennium since this began, a zodiacal holiday has been ritually performed by the 7 Archons through the 5 bund groups to celebrate either an Equinox or a Solstice of the "Aeonic" seasons.

PART 1A3: the cycling in of a new "world" order

The declaration of a "New Age" on the calendar therefore can only occur consecutive to the declaration of a new, global order on two conditions: if the situation is favourable both geo-politically and calendrically. In other words, if there is a massive revolutuion in social structure or the sciences, and it does not occur in conjunction with the calendar's changeing of the Aeons, then it will not be a truly "New Age." The events between the changes in Aeons are thus less significant to history than those occurring in tune with this 2000-year cycle. It takes but a moment's glance at even only recorded history to know this.

If, however, there is a massive revolution in social thinking, and it occurs at the turn of one 2000-year long Aeon to another, it ushers out an "Old Age," and thus an "Old World" is ritualistically sacrificed in the form of a newborn, and it ushers in a "New Age" and thus a "New World" is (re)discovered, to be conquered again anew by an alien group.

PART 1B: the present gobalist agenda

In +2000YP, there was a political coup-de-tat in the strongest nation on the planet, whose role in international politics had become in just 200 years for the entire planet alike the role of Athens in the Delian League some 2,500 years prior. Equivalent to the assassination of Julius Caesar in historical importance, influence and impact, this coup-de-tat was accomplished by and to benefit "neo-Sethians" (millanarian eschatologists). It involved controlling both parties in the political election for the highest office in the most powerful nation in the land. The result was public apathy, frustration and outcry at the injustice of the entire political system. The election was declared a tie, which met with popular support. However as a recount progressed, half grew impatient. These were the "neo-Sethians," and they stole the election by overturning the results of the recount. In +2000YP there was a political coupe-de-tat in the US, and it placed George W. Bush, the son of a spy, into the position of highest authority the world had ever seen.

After the past 9 (going on 10) years, we can all definitely agree on the result of this. George W. Bush, named after the burning effigy of Moses' God, also claimed to have invented the internet address system "www" (for "world wide web") that represents the "666" (w = the 6th letter in Hebrew alphabet) bar-code on all websites. George W. also reflects on the founding Patriot, our nations' foremost Father, George Washington, though the men are antitheses. Nostradamus' name for President Bush was "Mabus" representing him as the "May Bush" (for the 7 planet-alignment on Cinco De Mayo, 2000). It was said of George W. Bush 2000 years ago, in the book of Revelations, where unlucky 666 is compared to Roman Caesar Nero, that every 1000 years, the "Great Beast" or the "Red Dragon," that is commonly understood to mean Satan, the king of all demons, must be released from the pit of hell and "loosed upon the earth a little while." In short, George W. Bush, that "stuttering idiot" and "jealous child," that "insane cowboy," that last "great dictator," was, while he held the rank of highest authority on earth, Satan.

PART 1B1: the Bilderberg / Bohemian "neo-Sethians"

The "neo-Sethians" have ben an infamous sect of Gnosticism ever since the time of Christianity. Throughout this entire duration, and even for thousands of years prior to this, dating as early as the Mesopotamian flood at the start of known history, this group has been affiliated with the "dragon's blood." They claim to be descended from a partially-dinosaur gene-spliced monkey species contemporary to the dawn of modern mankind. This conjecture of their mythology accounts for the fact that in all art and literature depicting the "neo-Sethian" sect, they are represented by lizards.

The "neo-Sethians" represent the "youngest" or "newest" group of the perennial 5 orders in the POD "bund" hierarchy. Thus, whatever group wishes to vie for impact of their rules and role on history at any given time to become the "newest" group must confront the image of the serpent shedding its skin, and thus come to incorporate this motif somehow into its symbology and number-system.

So, when I say the "neo-Sethians" staged the +2000YP elections in the USA, I mean that the same group behind the recount fiasco was behind the events the following year on September 11. This group, despite having assumed the form of a blue-blood president of a "free" nation, was still only one group of five, and represented an upstart faction attempting to gain control for their own agenda over all.

PART 1B2: end of York (Christian) Essene order

This attempt by the neo-Sethians was specifically intended to "Aeonically" assassinate a fellow "Archon" or group-archetype. The years 1900-2000 had collectively been a ritual by the 5 "bund" groups to celebrate the change of the Aeon. The final century's festivities for the Aeon had been ushered in by a resurgence in interest in "gnostic apocrypha" yielding the Book of Enoch, the Nag Hammadi and finally the Dead Sea scrolls. Therefore, the group that had been the "neological" group 2000 years ago ushered in the beginning of the end of their Aeon. The Essenes of Qumran, whose Gnostic doctrine worshipped Enoch and preserved the time-keeping traditions of Atlantis, have mirror-symmetry in their hierarchy and number-system to the modern York Rite Free Masons.

Insofar as Qumran was, 2000 years ago, a literal attempt to recreate the ritual roles and rules of Solomon's temple on a communal-farm, it's similarity to the "Mark Master" degrees of York Rite are no coincidence. The baptismal consecration of the Qumran Essenes has become the religion of Christianity, which is the preferred religion among the members of the York Rite of Masonry. Moreover, the astrological sciences of the Enochian Jubilee calendar used by the Essenes comprise the secret doctrine of Masonry, which then builds this ancient zodiac onto monuments consecrating certain dates and events. The Essenes were the Christian Free Masons of 2000 years ago, and the York Rite Masons are the Essenes of today, 2000 years later.

PART 1B3: the fall of the "neo-Sethians" and rise of utopian Pythagoreanism

Inevitably, the result of the power-grab by the neological group at the turn of the Aeon results in a backlash toward support for the causes the neologists attack. In this most recent case, we find it was the Democratic ideals of the USA. The weapon used was the private bank system (the US Fed for one). The legislation itself was named the "Patriot Act" and the neo-Sethian choice for significant numerical / date systems was 9-11-2001. However, 2000 years ago, the same ritual was performed, and then the Roman neologists attacked the religious root of monotheism in Judaism; the weapon they used was the Jewish Sanhedrin; the event was the "Passion" and the "Crucifixion;" the significant numbers were 7 (the age of Jesus in year one) and 33AD ( $33 = 4 + 7 + 10 + 12$ ). The relationship of 11 to the "twin towers" is clear, as is the relationship of "9-11" to "911-Emergency." Less obvious is the relationship of the factorial table of nines to the shape of the pentagon (the floor of a dodecahedron of 12 sides). However, to those of us who understand the meanings of all these numerical-codes, the relationship of 5 to 11 is clear enough in the form of  $5+2=7=11-4$ .

The "neo-Sethians" selected their patsy fall-guy for their crime against humanity on 9-11 carefully. Just as Hitler, the Jewish Rothschild bastard, waged the most brutal pogrom against the Jewish people of Germany, his own homeland and people, because he believed he was a Viking; so too, the video-image visage of a middle-eastern Semite was chosen for the ikon of the millennial scape-goat, Usama Bin Laden, and since the second Persian Gulf war (in Jordan, Gaza and Palestine as much as in Afghanistan, Iraq and Palestine) have been blamed entirely on him alone. Consider his name: "Use Samael Bin-den." His name while working for the US CIA was "Tim Osmand." To be a spook means you never existed, and you have stepped outside of historical records to manipulate the flow of time itself.

PART 1C: the future(s) of the "global" government

During the last 10 years, the "neo-Sethians" have made crystal clear their motives and objectives for their coup-de-tat in global governmental control. They are hell-bent on bringing about the End-times event, the destruction of the world, or at the least, of all humanity. In short, they are war-hawks without a cause, rebels for their own sakes, and commonly called "neo-conservatives" for slang, although tomorrow's "neo-liberals" will be worse.

For this the "neo-Sethians" have constructed secret, deep-underground military bases (DUMBs), intercontinental ballistic missiles deployed globally, massively polluted the atmosphere, and agitated wars, famine, plague and crime in every corner of the world to gain complete control of the minds of all mankind through fear. They waged a campaign of "Torture and Terror" for 10 years; but those of us whose knowledge comes from before their reign began, merely 100 years ago, we know how it will inevitably end.

When the world failed to destroy itself in 2000, the "neo-Sethians" took the initiative to attempt to destroy it themselves for the purpose of initiating the Apocalypse, and drawing down an alien saviour for them to bargain with for control over the human populations. However, despite their capacity to unite the globe (against them) they lack the power at this time to destroy the whole planet (only to decimate its surface, themselves to escape underground). "First the globe must unite, then it can be collectively destroyed": such is the venom in a neo-Sethian's sting.

PART 1C1: the heaven-dimension of Pythagorean Atlantean Democracy

Ultimately, the "neo-Sethian" propaganda of 9-11 as a "New Pearl Harbor," justifying an "unending Crusade of attrition against invisible and, in truth, non-existent enemies," to question which is decried as mere "conspiracy theory," was entirely lies, irrelevant, and thus destined to be recalled by historians as, alike Hitler's Blitzkrieg over Europe, a "flash in the pan" of unsustainable military force. The more money is dumped into the murdering of soldiers for the cause of blind-faith in "neo-con" propaganda, which amounts, at best, to a war for oil, the deeper into their underground caves the serpents must slither to escape the wrath of their fellow humans.

Beyond the "endless war" strategy of bankrupting the US nation and breaking the morale of the other united nations, the "neo-Sethians" have zero plans for how to finish seizing power to impliment their global catastrophe and usher in their world-wide empire. The "neo-Sethians" are perpetually blind to the future as it unfolds from the cycle that defines the shape of the past.

It is this shape, its dimensions and measures, its ratios and curves, we in the POD study as the number-system ideals of Atlantean Democracy. To speak more of it at this time, prior to 2012, might only be to "cast pearls before swine," however, and so I will not reveal what is not given unto me to do so.

PART 1C1A: the changes from the present system to the Atlantean system

Changes from the present mode of local, state, federal and inter-national government would be minimal to adopt an "Atlantean Democracy" system of global government. In terms of "State" structures very little would need ammended. The largest change would be toward a fusion of all existing denominations of religion with a single form of cash and banking system. This change, although it may be drastic from the point of view of us alive now, will seem much less strange in fifty years from now, when the number-systems of Ra-MARDUK, the Archon of the Aeon prior to that from +1-2000YP, will fall and be replaced by a "new math" wherein knowledge increases exponentially as consciousness expands arithmetically. Rather than being centenniel in decimal only, we will experiment with other base-number counting-systems, as did the Mayans with their Venus-calendar, and thus the inner-most spiral expansion-pattern will be exposed to the psychic percpetions of all, and our learning curve will implode, alike the skin of a cocoon, and our spirits will emerge metastasized and metamorphosized.

The first and most difficult step of the journey of our next evolutionary mutation is freeing one's own mind from "neo-Sethian" propaganda's mind-control over one's own head. What we think, how we spend our time, while alive is all we will have to prove our worth to ourselves when we die. Therefore, the amount of our own "head-room" taken up by alien advertisers' information (ie. "neo-Sethian" propaganda) the less of a living soul we have, and the more willfully ignorant we choose to remain to our psychic-slavery to the "neo-Sethians'" doomsday agenda. As Plato once wrote an Akousmatikoi of Socrates (Pythagoras), "the unexamined life is not worth living."

This first step is the most difficult: to free one's self from mental slavery to distant forces of control over our own lives, what we think and why, how we dress and say what we say, and why, how we relate and who we choose to communicate to, and why, etc. First we must realise we choose not only which things to want and desire, but that we can choose to not want nor to desire anything for ourselves at all, and in this way we can come to be provided for by the very environment of the world around us. Following this, our ordinary routines will all break down and appear non-sensical. Sleep during the day and work at night will become as socially-acceptable as solar-slavery is now. Dietary habits will be revolutionized by new genetically spliced plants, and possibly even new genetically spliced species of animals. Even mental control over one's own circadian rhythms can not only be re-attained by any individual, as soon as they realise they are an individual, and not just a reptile, but can be used to combat these "neo-Sethian" vampires who suck the orgone Chi out of their unaware and helpless victims.

PART 1C2: the hell-dimension of neo-Sethian millennarian eschatology

The "neo-Sethians'" goals in their attempted millennial coup-de-tat were simple: destroy earth. They have, thus far, failed, and even now are diminishing in their authority and scope throughout the political sphere. However, for each and every one of this generations' members of the neological group, as for those from each generation before ours, there is a special catacomb carved out for them in Hell. Those traitors who betray the truth for lies, who betray love for blidness, who betray their souls for money, will suffer their own desired future: a horrible catastrophe will soon befall them. A massive revolution, spear-headed by a vast, international pacifist movement of populist politicians, will seek to deseate and defeat the neo-Sethians utterly. The "neo-Sethians" will flee to their DUMBs, and many millions will die. Some will survive to create the utopia described in HG Welles' "the Time Machine," although even then, Atlantean Democracy will be revived and flourish anew. The "neo-Sethians" know they will be defeated. They always knew.

In the end of the "neo-Sethian" hell on earth awaits for them a complete global thermo-nuclear war, decimating the surface of the planet and leaving them warped and twisted morgellon-infested trogladytic mutants in their DUMB snake-pits. If you are a reptilian, that is what you have to look forward to. Hell on earth will be your eternal reward, and punishment, for your own just deserts.

PART 1C1A: the changes from the present system to the neo-Sethian system

Although martial-law, leading to the nuking of the surface of the whole planet, a veritable extinction-level-event, seems like an inevitable next slip down the slippery, steeply sloping steps of a failing empire, there are other options than either headlong suicide or blind faith in pacifist obedience.

The ultimate solution to the world's problems and accomplishment of its long-standing goals of global peace, global trade, global learning and global culture, is simple: study the number-systems used by any two groups, cults of religion or sects of state. To do this is called studying "Atlantean Democracy" and is the only thing, right now, that can help to make the world better.

Therefore, instead of the "inevitable end," prepare instead for the immortal tomorrow's dawn, for it will always appear. All those crimes committed by night will be brought to the light. And when they are, the guilty will be punished and the righteous will be justifiably vindicated.

Globalism- Dictatorship by Protocols or Atlantean Democracy?

intro: why is it called "Atlantean" Democracy?

A. Globalism in the Present Dawn of the 21st century.

1. the history of the modern trend toward global government

1a. prior to the 1900's: the Dream of Past Petty Tyrants Becomes the Present Protocols for a Future Global Dictatorship.

1b. the early 1900's: Neo-Colonialism (Zionism, Imperialism, Central Economic Planning) opposed by Nationalism (Fascist Corporatism, Patriotism to Free-Market Capitalism, Centralised Oligarchical Statism).

1c. the mid-1900's: Leveraged Buy-Outs of Corporations by Banks (identification of key, new resource-exploiting, tech industries for aggressive acquisition).

1d. the late 1900's: Lobbyists and Special-Interests push Entitlement Programs and Militarism

(the interest-bearing debt-restructuring of financing for independent nations by multi-national central-banks).

1e. the early 2000's: the Bankruptcy of Fiat Cash Following its Expediency in Acquiring Power Resources

(the Military Industrial Empire, the Disenfranchised Mass Populous and Individuals as Enemies of the State).

2. the modern Globalist political planners and round-table / "think-tank" groups.

2a. the Trilateral Commission funded by the Vatican Bank (Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Warburgs, etc.)

Military-Industrialists over the East Asian, Afro-European and trans-American "Economic-Unions," etc.

2b. the Council on Foreign Relations (rotating membership) and the Club of Rome (permanent membership) private share-holding stock-owners of international central banks over the Fed, Free-Trade Agreements, etc.

2c. the Bilderberg Group (mobile, rotating members) reporting to the Committee of 300 (stationary, life-time members)

"owners of the means of production" from all industries over the independent media, public politics, etc.

2d. the Bohemian Grove (Maloch) Club AKA the Finders (MK Monarch)

(human traffickers in child sex slaves) over the intelligence communities, commodities distribution networks, etc.

3. the modern rich elites' plan for future world government.

3a. the prison / ponzi / pyramid model of 3 Classes: 1) a single warden; 2) a few guards; 3) the imprisoned population.

3b. 9-11: a neo-con coup using Continuity of Government providing redundant DUMBs for the chief executive officers.

3c. the lack of a back-up plan in the event of failure of this system for any alternative form of adaptive survival.

3d. the "doomsday" scenario of eschatology being the only alternative form or back-up plan for modern globalists.

3e. the "all for me or else nothing for anybody" mentality of investment (credit) banking sold to prop up petty-tyrants.

3f. betrayal of the armed middle-class by the owners of banks and by the disenfranchised prison populous alike.

4. Ultimate Failure of Dictatorships in General and of All Historical "Global" Empires by Over-Extended Spending.

4a. the flaw of Socialist Labour-Unionism in attacking Monetary-Exchange methodologies. (Marx's "Das Kapital")

- fixed amount, solid-commodity legal currency vs. fiat tender based on interest-bearing loans from investment banks.
- use of the latter by US-banked Russian Sovietism to erode the former by promising "redistribution of wealth" to poor.
- use of the former by "Revolutionaries" for sound money to withstand the erosion of promissory notes by state banks.
- results of free-market capitalism founded on solid-currency vs. Wall-Street croney bail-outs and the fall of Sovietism.

B. the Protocols for a Future Global Dictatorship.

1. the history of leaked documents from the Protocols of Zionism to Project Blue Beam and beyond. ("BaPH" model)
    - 1a. the Protocols of Zionism, attributed to "the learned elders." (early 1900's)
    - 1b. Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars, a military economics manifesto. (mid-1900's)
    - 1c. Project Blue Beam, the end-game doomsday scenario to kill off all life on earth's surface. (late-1900's)
    - 1d. the cyber-age of dis-information, wikileaks of newly "legalised" war-crimes vs. alien conspiracy "theories." (2000's)
    - 1e. the prediction of impact with earth and the asteroid Apophis 99942 in 2029 and preparing for the end of the world.
      - use of the calendar to induce millenarian eschatologism, compounded exponentially by celestial coincidences
      - use of propaganda to compound public panic to mass fever pitch over non-existent threats ("terrorism," drugs, etc.)
      - preparation of DUMBs (mass bomb-shelters) to survive a surface ELE and UFO tech to out-live a global destruction.
      - final initiation of plans for population reduction "by any means necessary" (food-control, bio-chem germs, nuke, etc.)
      - the concept of "peak-point" for industrialism and prediction of an environmentally necessitated return to feudalism.
  2. the history of the concept of a global dictator
    - 2a. the Vedic Castes vs. an Alexandrian "Republic"
    - 2b. the Roman Republic vs. Julius Caesar
    - 2c. the Dark Ages under the Catholic Papacy.
    - 2d. Privatised Ownership of Investment Banks and their "Protocols of Zionism."
    - 2e. the modern model of a psychic dictatorship and the imminent crowning of a single global dictator.
  3. the reasoning for wanting to have a single global dictator.
    - 3a. the plotting of petty-dictators to create a system to more simply gain greater power over the largest populous.
    - 3b. the creation of totalitarian beauracracy based on fiat currency to tempt dependents into state-salaried slavery.
    - 3b. the use of beauracracy as a crucible for petty tyrants to progress at the expense of crushed souls.
    - 3c. the eventual end-goal of all beauracracy is to become "king of the hill" - a lone tyrant atop a totalitarian pyramid.
    - 3d. the eventual bait-and-switch betrayal of any such beauracrat tyrant by their bank-rollers in events of poor times.
    - 3e. the end of the totalitarian beauracracy in every nation by the implimentation of a single global dictator over them all.
    - 3f. the strategy of applied dialectics used within the totalitarian beauracracy by successful petty tyrants
      - in rhetorical propaganda as:
      - thesis (statement of intent for changes),
      - anti-thesis (disproof of alledgedly existing belief about the intended changes),
      - synthesis (use as proof of need for the initial statement's intended changes).
      - in strategic methodology as:
- Problem: an existent situation for a group is classified as undesirable for some arbitrary reason by one person
 Reaction: the middle-management of social beauracracy is put into motion to correct the individual's perceived problem
 Solution: by involving the social beauracracy in the process, the problem identified initially by one grows worse for all.

C. The Ideal Future of a Global Democracy.

1. the ideal Rights to Personal Liberty (individual sovereignty) and Honest Trade, and gov't non-interference therewith.
  - 1a. the concept of Justice. Free Market Fair Trades, not "Free Trade" implying, which seems worse, "taxed trade."
    - the lifespan of Justice, and the concept of Injustice.
  - 1b. the reality of punitive enforcement for infractions of laws, even if committed by individuals in high political offices.
    - the "concept of justice" is lost in the breach of law enforcement to exclude prosecuting the rich or powerful.
  - 1c. Restoring one's own individual sovereignty occurs when one stops being led to believe and thinks for themselves.
    - this pyschic liberation from mental-bondage must occur for any individual before they can help others in social group.
  - 1d. Imagining better alternatives, regardless of how unpopular such time-consumption is to work-slaves, is important.
    - answers come from asking the question, not from only thinking the question up. This takes time, sometimes absent.
  - 1e. Rights are eternal, and as ideas cannot be killed, so too is Liberty first an idea, which is, simply, a realised ideal.
    - Rights are above even the Law, which is merely immortal, but is man-made, not external in origin and only learned.
2. the ideal role of government is to enforce only the first law: to protect all individual sovereigns' Right to Liberty.
  - 2a. the role of government in the lives of all non-sovereign individuals should be to not interfere with them at all.
    - hence no individual sovereign may benefit from using non-sovereign individuals. That would be the worst crime.
    - hence no social group or its government should interfere with anyone anywhere that does not adhere or belong to it.
    - hence the travels or trades between non-sovereign individuals cannot be taxed by anyone who would be sovereign.
    - hence, likewise, if non-sovereigns deal wrongly with one another, no sovereign government may interfere to stop this.
  - 2b. what is the ideal form of government to prevent its role from being anything other than protecting individual liberty?
    - government membership may be left unlimited in strictly inverse porportion to the limitations on the group's authority.
    - the larger a government grows, the more checks and balances must be pre-emptively put into place to prevent over-expansion and the eventual fiat (interest rated loans) currency of an over-extended empire that leads to its collapse.
    - thus, the larger the group's membership, the longer its constitution and the bigger its government become.
    - thus, likewise, the ideal form of government based on non-interference and punitive enforcement against infractions of anyone personal liberty, be they individual sovereigns or belonging to any group and under another's government, would be a very small membership with very limited scale of authority over anyone outside those belonging to them.

- such a government consolidates power through acquiring group membership by setting a good example of their ideal.
- thus, a group based on small sized, powerless government being an ideal enforcer of the law of individual liberty do win in the over all the other groups around them by outlasting them all, since all are dictatorships, bound to fail.

2c. how does a weak, small government punitively enforce laws against violations of any individual's sovereign Right?

- by redefining to only a small contextual extent what constitutes a breach of an individual's sovereign Right to Liberty.

2d. how can such a government succeed against tyranny if it cannot actually enforce its laws by punishment?

- because tyrannies' turn-over rate is even more rapid than the downfall of a government that trusts in anarchy.
- ultimately Good simply outlives Evil, and a small, weak government can outlast the life-span of all petty tyrants.

3. the ideal form of a global government is thus a small, powerless group. The best method for this is a Democracy.

3a. to insure the best method for protecting all individual's right to self-sovereign freedom is to maintain a small gov't

- the concept of a gov't itself should become only political discussions between individual sovereigns, with no groups.
- this can be achieved by implimenting an impotent form of government at the top, to which all others answer below it.
- the importance of this global government over all being powerless is the core of why it must be a Democracy itself.

3b. Democracy is premised on rule by majority vote. Thus, a small membership is easiest and if limited legally best.

- ideally, for a global government to be able to punitively enforce the law of individual liberty, that must be its 1 power.

- a small, otherwise absolutely powerless, form of Democracy at the top level of world governments, does work.

- the role of the world court, the UN and global economy relative to the role of petty dictators, IMF and central banks.

D. December 20/21, 12:00 midnight, 2012: a time to choose.

1. the Zero-Sum Game of Fiat Croney-Corporatist Capitalism is either a dictatorship or else delivery of a doomsday plan.

1a. the result of such a plan on the time-streams for living beings on earth: their division from a single unified form into:

- the world where all takes a turn for the worse: a hell-dimension split at the declaration of global martial law.
- the world where all stays exactly the same: a middle-road where nothing adapts, which will be destroyed by Apophis.
- the world where all continues on, with improving: a world-line wherein a global Democracy rules all free individuals.

1b. the cause of their plans to pivot their position into power at this present moment depends on celestial events as well.

- the times leading up to 1999 / 2000 (new year's eve). The revelations of ritual magic cults behind the entertainment biz.

- the period of time from 2000 until 9-11-2001. The theft of the election and collusion of neo-cons and UBL to stage 9-11.

- the event of 9-11-2001: UBL, a long-term CIA mole, was falsely accused by the neo-cons for their own staged attack.

- the times from 2001 until 2012. The building up of the hegemonic army at the expense of national economic solvency.

- the year 2012. The three possible events: 1) something bad. 2) nothing. 3) something good. The division of time-lines.

- 12-20-2012. The prediction of the 7 planet alignment of 5/5/2000 by the Hollywood magicians. Neo-con calendar lies.

- 12-21-2012. The morning after: the division of the time-lines by the passage of this calendrical / celestial event in time.

2. Who are "We, the People," when the US is a "melting-pot," and what should the definition of citizenship mean to all?

2a. the "financial wizards" and "money manipulators" who pull the strings of political puppets to legalise their militarism.

- why the military obeys politicians, why the politicians obey the rich elites, and why the rich elites seek power over all.

2b. the disenfranchised, impoverished, imprisoned wage-slave serfs who obey the system of using the elite's fiat cash.

- why it is important to understand the premise of "sound-money" to be able to be truly free, and to defend the right to be.

2c. alternatives to the system of mental-slavery to taxation to pay the interest on loans backed by imaginary sums of fiat.

- the method of a gradual restoration of regional, national, state and local sovereignty by a transition to competing gold.

- the method of transition by competing currencies: an ounce of gold tied to a measure of silver per one dollar Fed note.

- to secure the transition from a hyperinflating dollar relative to gold value, and restore gold to use as circulated coins.

- when the dollar value drops, more dollars buy less, so gold would pose an easy transition to a higher valued medium.

3. "We, the People" vs. the zero-sum game of financing "wizards" engaged in croney-corporatism and political graft.

3a. the apparently limited likelihood of success by the masses to prevent the neo-con plot to dictate or kill all the globe.

- leading up to a much feared conclusive demonstration of doomsday / ELE level force by corporate controlled militaries.

3b. the actual impossibility of the neo-cons amassing enough fire-power to effectively execute a global dictatorship.

- the creation of the illusion to the public of power, concealing behind it the ultimate impotence of ignorant greed.

3c. the moment of greatest fear as any final attack scenario begins is the moment of greatest opportunity for its failure.

- the neo-cons will build up the illusion of their power (both fiat money and military command) until it finally fails them.

outro: Why is it called Atlantean "Democracy"?
